Finance update

During the 2017-18 academic year, the foundation awarded $3.8 million, which includes $2.2 million in scholarships and $1.3 million for endowed faculty chairs and programs.

This spring, the foundation exceeded $100 million in net assets, which includes the district office property.

Since 2000, when Sandy joined Valencia, the foundation has disbursed $46.9 million. And the endowment has grown from $15.8 million to $74.3 million. The foundation raised $62 million during that time, thanks to very generous donors.

For the 17th year, the foundation's finances have received a clean audit, without exception.

Universal Orlando supports the arts and mentoring relationships

Over the past two years, Universal Orlando has committed $500,000 to Valencia for the Art of Tomorrow program and Take Stock in Children. UO's total giving over the past 20 years is $764,000.

Help share Valencia's student experiences

As Valencia advocates, the trustees are encouraged to collaborate with the foundation board by inviting friends and colleagues to special events that help tell Valencia's story. On Nov. 13, the foundation will host an evening that brings together advocates who support educational opportunities at the Marriott Downtown, a couple of blocks from the new campus.
