

VALENCIA COLLEGE

Future Teachers Academy

A Partnership with UCF and the School District of Osceola County

Who?

- High school seniors in Osceola County interested in becoming elementary school teachers in Osceola County

What?

- Students enroll in a full-time cohort program at Valencia to earn an Associate's degree in two years
- Students then enroll full-time at UCF and complete student teaching and internship experiences in an Osceola County school.

Why?

- Students will earn a $200 scholarship towards the next term for each successful term completed at Valencia
- At UCF, students will earn $2,500 stipends for successful completion of Internship I and also Internship II
- Upon successful completion of the program and upon meeting eligibility requirements, graduates from the program will be offered a teaching position by the School District of Osceola County
